

Your gift is the best gift of all: the gift of a life changed. Please know that on your behalf, a child you have never met before is receiving new opportunities for life. They will never be the same, because of you. Thank you so much on behalf of that child, for the life you are changing.

